

B. Chatterjee: CNSI Helps Washington Agency Integrate Social Service, Medicaid Payment Systems

The Washington State Health Care Authority has worked with CNSI to implement an integrated technology platform for managing social service and medical claim payments across the state. CNSI said Wednesday the agency used the company's ProviderOne provider payment technology to transition more than 4,300 local social service organizations to the state's Medicaid Management Information System. Read The Full Article