

Grand Ledge IT Exec Named to Middle Eastern Commission

LANSING – Gov. Rick Snyder has made his first appointments to a commission aimed at reflecting the growing diversity of those in Michigan with Middle Eastern roots. The Republican governor has named 15 members to the Middle Eastern American Affairs Commission. He created it in February to replace the Michigan Council on Arab and Chaldean Affairs. Read the Full Article