Medicaid App Helps Michigan Residents Manage Health on-the-go

The Michigan Department of Community Health and information technology firm CNSI are offering Michigan residents a new interactive mobile application and online portal to track medical records while on-the-go, proving that the mhealth sector continues to grow wider in 2015. Read The Full Article